Five hundred eighty-three votes were cast and of these there were four hundred sixty-two votes "Aye" and one hundred twenty-one votes "No," giving the project an endorsement of almost four to one.

Windsor Wins Cleric's Aid

Church Of England Clergymen Will Perform Ceremony

By WEBB MILLER
United Press Staff Correspondent
MONTES, France, (Copyright, 1937, By United Press)—The Duke of Windsor will receive the blessing of a Church of England clergyman when he is married to Mrs. Wallis Warfield at the Chateau De Candé tomorrow, but it will be without the approval of the church itself.

The Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, vicar of St. Paul's church at Darlington, Yorkshire, England, who has volunteered to perform a religious ceremony, admitted today that he has not obtained the approval of his ecclesiastical superiors.

There was speculation here on whether the Rev. Mr. Jardine might not be disciplined by the church, which generally disapproves of the marriage, and perhaps even be deprived of his parish.

UNAUTHORIZED
LONDON (UP)—The Rev. R. Anderson Jardine is officiating at the wedding of the Duke of Windsor at Montes tomorrow without "my knowledge, permission or consent," the bishop of Fulham, who has jurisdiction over the Church of England in France, announced today.

Police Judge Eugene Creed will hold a "traffic matinee" on Friday, with seven defendants as the "star performers." Their charges include having no license, passing on curves and speeding.

48 PUPILS HAVE PERFECT ATTENDANCE MARKS

Charles Simpson, In Seventh Grade, Present Every Day Since Entering School, Records Disclose

Forty-eight pupils of the Placerville grammar school have perfect attendance records up to this time, and if their marks continue unbroken they will receive attendance certificates at the close of the school year.

The "dean" of the forty-eight is Charles Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson and a seventh grade pupil. Charles has not missed a day of school in seven years.

Paul Hosier, in the same class, has not missed a day of school in four years.

Those who have been present every day for three years are Dolores Rizo, of Miss Up De Graf's sixth grade; Cecilia Morton, of Miss Schnell's seventh grade; and Mildred Rakish, of Miss Henson's eighth grade.

In the two-year perfect attendance group are Beatrice Martin, of Miss Veerkamp's sixth grade; Robert Springer, of Mr. Parsons' seventh grade; Eileen Shafer and Edith Young, of Miss Henson's eighth grade; and Sidney Price, of Miss Scherrer's eighth grade.

In addition to these, the pupils in perfect attendance during the past year are Barbara Babcock and Patricia Land, of Miss Richardson's first grade; Lupo Rizo and Norman Shirar, of Miss Schneider's first grade; Howard Beatrice, of Miss Brieger's second grade; Carolyn Mae Larson, Ann Rakish and Donald Furman, of Miss Brandt's third grade; Geraldine Furman, Adrienne Pacheco and Lola May Schroth, of Mrs. Golden's fourth grade; Beverly Geddes, Anita Scott, Edith Shafer, Arnold Bathurst, Robert Duncan and Philip Morton, of Miss Laura Ball's fifth grade; Donald Young, of Miss Up De Graf's sixth grade; Henri Pierroz, LaVern Potts and Fred Westphal, of Miss Veerkamp's sixth grade; Jack Fossati, Thelma Wilkinson, Edith Thomsen, Barbara May, Audrey Clifton and Marion Blair, of Mr. Parsons' seventh grade; Robert Bertram, Gerald Bonillo, June Woodward, Ruth Martin, of Miss Schnell's seventh grade; and Bill Dillinger, Helen Bathurst, Eleanor Chalder, Gladys Robinson, Wilma Schroth and Edna Mae Smith, of Miss Scherrer's eighth grade.

Commencement Thursday

"Senior Week" Nears Close; Ball Held On Tuesday

Eighty members of the Senior class of the county high school will receive their diplomas at the commencement exercises in the high school auditorium on Thursday evening.

The event will close the annual "Senior Week."

The annual Senior Ball was a colorful affair and was held Tuesday evening at the school auditorium, with dancing from 8:45 o'clock until 11:45 o'clock to music by Red's Rhythm Rascals.

Decorations in pastel shades were a feature of the evening. Admission was by invitation.

The annual Senior excursion to Lake Tahoe was held Saturday and was more than ordinarily a success. The Baccalaureate service was Sunday evening in the school auditorium.

Seniors spent Wednesday collecting their school books and other effects.

In connection with the commencement on Thursday evening, the seats on the entire main floor are reserved and, according to Principal B. E. Larson, reservations will be held until 7:55 p. m. Those who have reserved seats should arrange to be in their seats before that hour.

YOST FAMILY FILES SUIT IN DEATH

SACRAMENTO—The death a year ago of Miss Torrence Yost, 18, Folsom high school senior, in a grade crossing accident, was recalled with the filing in Superior Court yesterday of a $25,250 damage action against the Southern Pacific railway.

The plaintiff is George O. Yost, the girl's father.

Miss Yost, the driver, and Everett Chambers, 18, passenger, were killed when their car was struck by an S. P. motor train at the Alder Creek crossing near Folsom, June 1, 1936. Two other Folsom high school students were injured.

A notice of their intention to wed was filed with the county clerk on June 1 by William Raymond Beckett, 32, of Camino, and Hazel Valma Scheller, 19, of Placerville.

Club Members End Year

Picnic Wednesday Opens Annual Vacation Season

The members of the Shakespeare Club closed the club year on Wednesday with their annual picnic, held at the grove at the Marshall monument state park, at Coloma. A potluck luncheon was served at noon.

This closes the club year and, as is the custom, was the first function in which officers for the new year officiated.

The officers for the new year, headed by Mrs. Harriett Amstaden, re-elected president, took their places at the final business meeting of the club for the year, held on Tuesday at the clubhouse.

Report was made by Mrs. C. A. Smith on her attendance at the state federation meeting at Coronado and various departmental officers of the club made their reports for the month just closed.

The new officers of the club were installed at this meeting.

VETERAN LUMBER EMPLOYEE IS CALLED

Joseph Billotti, 52, who came to El Dorado County in 1906 and had worked for 25 years for the California Door Company as a railroad fireman, died Tuesday night at Diamond Springs following a long period of declining health.

Billotti has no relatives in this country. He came directly to this county when he arrived from Italy and had resided here continuously. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Diamond Springs and was held in high esteem by his many friends in that community.

Funeral arrangements are being concluded in the care of the Dillinger mortuary.

Shingle Couple Wed In Reno Rites

Reno reports the marriage there on Tuesday of Glen Crawford, 27, and Harriette Kinder, 20, both of Shingle Springs, this county. We offer our good wishes.

Teachers Rated Free Of T. B.

If pupils at the high school or Placerville grammar school show tuberculosis infection, it's a certainty they haven't contracted the disease from any of the adults connected with either school.

This is according to a report from Dr. Chesley Bush, one of the physicians co-operating with the California Tuberculosis Association in their survey of the disease in the schools of the state, which shows no trace of the disease in any adult connected with either school.

This includes teachers, janitors, bus drivers, and all persons connected with cooking at either school. In this last group, the survey included cooking near the school campus but not connected with the school.

Lions To Seat New Officers

John Palmer Heads Committee To Plan Installation

Installation of newly chosen officers of Placerville Den of Lions will take place later this month, at a time and place to be arranged by a committee of which Past President John H. Palmer is chairman.

The officers to be installed were chosen at Tuesday's meeting of the club at Hotel Raffles, and were all named without opposition. They are: J. H. Rhodes, president; William Hayes, first vice-president; A. H. Murray, second vice-president; A. A. Mart, secretary; and Louis Armes and Don Prouty, directors.

Entertainment for the meeting featured motion pictures supplied by F. B. Grady, representing the Weaver-Rye Tractor Company of Sacramento, showing Diesel-powered tractors in use in the Orient and in logging camps in the Occident.

IRRIGATION MEETINGS JUNE 10

Notices are being sent county orchardists by the Farm Advisor's office, calling attention to two irrigation demonstration meetings to be held in the county on June 10.

J. B. Brown, extension specialist in irrigation will conduct the meetings.

The demonstration in the morning will be at 10 o'clock at the Ed. Odlin orchard on Coloma road.

The afternoon demonstration will be at the James Irving ranch, in the Fruit Ridge district at 2 o'clock.

Anyone concerned with orchard irrigation problems is welcome to attend either or both of these meetings.

Summit Considers Power Plans

The attention of residents of the Summit district is being directed to a meeting of the Summit Farm Center on June 8, for a consideration of electric power problems in the district.

Al Bryan, center chairman, reports that representatives of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company will attend the meeting to explain the company's requirements and answer questions in connection with the problem.

It is hoped that the matter may be brought to a head at this meeting and that the question, which has been pending for some time, may be disposed of with some decision.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Clark returned Tuesday from a Memorial Day week-end vacation trip to Salt Lake City. The trip, they report, was a memorable one.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK (UP)—Patting down a few divots on the recent P. G. A. championship at Pittsburgh's field club: The tremendous nervousness of Harold (Jug) McSpaden as he waited for the marshalls to clear the course
so he could hit his tee shot on the 37th hole . . . Up and down the tee he walked, swinging his club wildly . . .
And twice he asked George Jacobus, P. G. A. president, if it wouldn't be possible to waive the ruling that says
all ties must be determined by "sudden death," and have the playoff at 18 holes.

He offered a marked contrast to his opponent, Deeny Shute who sat quickly
under the starter's umbrella, his eyes half closed, resting . . . Then the starter told the boys to "tee off" and you knew that the agitated McSpaden was licked . . . At the top of his back-swing his form went all to pieces and he hooked the pay-off ball into the woody rough . . . Shute, so weary he barely could get out of his chair, somehow pulled himself together and knocked one 250 yards down the middle . . .

In all the earlier rounds of the tournament Shute never had made a par four on the first hole . . . Yet, with the title and thousands of dollars hanging in the balance, he was straight on the pin with his second for a sure four . . .
Yes sir, brother Shute is the greatest money player the game of golf has seen since Hagen . . .

Shute had more than McSpaden to contend with in the final round . . .
He had the gallery . . . It was for "Jug"
almost to a man, and in the late stages of the match it even applauded Shute's missed putts . . . But if it bothered the Boston sharpshooter he never showed it . . . He's concentration plus . . . On the 36th hole McSpaden, with a five foot putt for a win, beseeched
the camera men to stop their grinding . . . "Give me a chance," he said
. . . "I've been working all my life for this putt" . . . He missed it . . . A hole later, when Shute lined up a putt of almost the same distance for a win,
cameras ground all over the place . . .

An airplane roared overhead, and on a nearby street, a policeman shrilled on his whistle . . . Shute said nary a word, but walked up and, with a quick glance at the line, knocked it in . . .
"Wild Bill" Mehlhorn stopping his car enroute to the course to pick up a stray and hungry cat . . . He can't pass one . . . His hotel room at Pittsburgh was filled with cats and kittens
he had collected in a few days . . .
"Bill spends more for meat for those orphan cats," moaned his wife Virginia, a former follies girl, "than he wins on the winter circuit" . . .

Jock Sutherland, Pittsburgh coach, Tom Collins in hand, straddling a locker room bench, and predicting a
"so-so" Panther team next fall . . .
And chuckling over the irony of the situation next fall when Pitt plays Carnegie Tech . . . For sitting on the bench as head coach of Carnegie Tech will be Bill Kern, Jock's right hand man until a few months ago, and a young man Jack "fathered" as a coach.

Tony Manero getting Harry Cooper's goat in their quarter-final match
by playing three times as slow as he usually does, which is plenty slow enough . . . Cooper is one of the fastest players in the business, and the open champion's slowness nearly drove him crazy . . .

Manero, after his victory over Cooper,
not even taking time to accept congratulations before putting in a call for his wife, who was recuperating from a serious operation in Boston . . .
Watching Ky Laffoon, a born gambler, take $100 from a gentleman of the pool room who thought he had a sucker . . .

The absolutely perfect manner in which the field club conducted the P.
G. A. tournament . . . The field club wants the national open, and here is my vote . . . After Baltusrol the field club would come as Manna from heaven to golf writers . . .

CCC ADVISOR IS SPEAKER FOR CLUB

At the program meeting of the Shakespeare Club on Tuesday of last week, E. W. Hilton, educational advisor of the Mosquito CCC camp, gave a very interesting talk on the work that he has been doing in carrying out the government's program for education in the camps by instructing the boys along lines of vocational training.

This training will enable the enrollees to fill jobs as skilled workmen when they have completed their enrollment in the camps. Various classes are being conducted by Mr. Hilton with the assistance of the foreman of the camp and courses in auto mechanics, blasting and surveying are proving most popular.

Mr. Hilton was accompanied by a group of talented enrollees who, under the direction of Herbert Swesey, gave a 45-minute program of dances,
music and readings which was highly entertaining.

Refreshments were served with Mrs.
F. J. Raffetto as chairman.

MISSING PLANE
CLUES SEEN
IN LETTERS

SALT LAKE CITY (UP)—Postoffice Inspector M. G. Wenger said today he was convinced that five weather-beaten letters found high in the Wasatch Mountains above Alpine, came from the Western Air Express plane, missing since February.

"However, if the missing plane is in that area it must be still under the snow," he said.

"Judging from the place where the letters were found it appears that the ship struck a ridge at 11,000 or even 12,000 to 13,000 feet.

"Apparently the impact of the crash broke open the plane and our mail bags, which were in the rear compartment," he said. "Then it is entirely possible that the plane hurtled down into a hollow where it may be covered with snow."

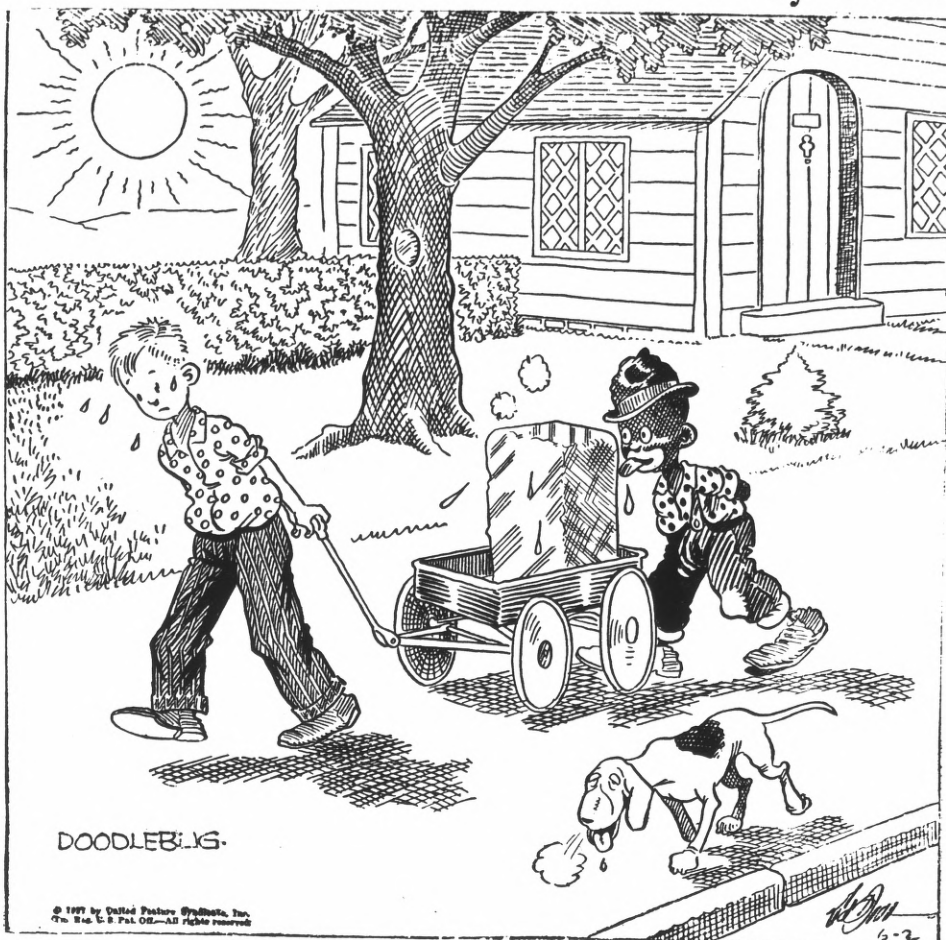

Fire Opens 83rd
Year For Paper

SANTA CRUZ (UP)—The Santa Cruz Sentinel began its 83rd year of continuous publication today with a fire as its first birthday present.

The fire, the origin of which was not determined, broke out in company buildings next to the plant but was put out with a minimum of damage and the paper published as usual today.

the plans for the proposed improvement in Placerville. He was assisted in field work by Clifton Wildman, city engineer. The plans provide in the main, for a trunk line sewer down Hangtown Creek, with connecting mains, extending to a sewage disposal plant below the city limits.
